Dear Ms. Gilmore,

Congratulations on the acceptance of your presentation at the Alabama Educational Technology Conference in Birmingham, Alabama. This academic acknowledgement is a positive reflection on the university and on you as a valuable member of our academic team. These academic papers and presentations contribute significantly to the status of the university and reflect on the quality academic contributions that our faculty makes to Troy University, and to the worldwide academic community.

I sincerely appreciate the time which you have taken to invest in this research and presentation. My congratulations to you on your academic achievement. Best wishes for your continued success. As soon as a Jeanell Sikes receives a copy of your presentation, we will place it in your personnel file at Troy University.

Sincerely,

Susan C. Aldridge, Ph. D.
